

Below is a recap of what we learned in our PreK through Grade 8 ASK classes last Sunday (Feb-14) and what's coming up this Sunday (Feb-21) and what your child(ren) should have ready for class.

SOUL MATTERS (GRADES PREK-1 and 2-5): Last Sunday (Feb-14), the Soul Matters classes enjoyed the reading of "A Ride to Remember" by UU author Amy Nathan and music by banjo-player Tony Trischka. You can learn more about this wonderful book here: http://www.amynathanbooks.com/a\_ride\_to\_remember\_a\_civil\_rights\_story.htm

Next Class (Sunday Feb-21): The Soul Matters classes will continue their discussions of what is Beloved Community. This week we explore ways that Beloved Community is where we can heal wounds, especially those caused by prejudice and racism. PLEASE HAVE READY: Beloved Community coloring page (see attachment) and/or paper, coloring materials

CROSSING PATHS (GRADES 6-7): Last Sunday, the Crossing Paths continued their exploration of the faith of Hinduism, including learning about some of their most important gods and goddesses.

Next Class (Sunday Feb-21): This Sunday, the class will interview a special guest, Kalpana Kanthan, who will share her experience, beliefs and traditions growing up Hindu. PLEASE HAVE READY: Paper and pen/pencil
