

Below is a recap of what we learned in our PreK through Grade 8 RE classes last Sunday (May-16) and what's coming up this Sunday (May-23) and what your child(ren) should have ready for class.

SOUL MATTERS (GRADES PREK-1 and 2-5): Last Sunday (May-16), the Soul Matters classes discussed how stories remind us of who we are as welcoming congregations and anti-racists. During our art activity, we celebrated the many different colors of us that make up our beautiful and diverse world.

Next and FINAL Class (Sunday May-23): This Sunday, both Soul Matters classes will meet together in one zoom room for a final Soul Matters lesson before our summer break. We will also thank our zoom RE teachers who have so have worked so hard this year! PLEASE HAVE READY (both classes): "THANK YOU" rainbow poster (to show our teachers) (attached)

Please Note: Both classes, please use the PreK-Grade 1 Zoom link <https://zoom.us/j/94898750676> for this special "group Soul Matters". Class is from 11:30 - noon.

CROSSING PATHS (GRADES 6-7): Last Sunday, our Crossing Paths class played Jeopardy during their final lesson to summarize their year of exploring world religions. Crossing Paths is all done for this year! Have a great summer!

Coming up in June: Our three congregations, CUC, USR and All Souls NYC, will be hosting an online series called "Draw the Circle Wider" featuring guest authors and musicians. More details to come!
