UUA Intergenerational Seminar —online and in-person

April 1-3, 2023

The 2023 Intergenerational Spring Seminar, Demilitarization & Abolition: Resist Policing and Empire, will be hosted by the Unitarian Universalist Association Office at the United Nations in close partnership with the Unitarian Universalist College of Social Justice and the UU Service Committee.

All In-Person and Youth registration closes March 15.
Adult Online Registration closes March 30.

The Seminar will take place in-person in Minneapolis and online, April 1 - 3, 2023 (with Youth Orientation the evening of March 31). The event aims to instill in Unitarian Universalist youth and adults a commitment to global engagement and the skills to take action locally to address global issues.

There are separate registration forms for youth (aged 14-18) and adult (over 18) attendees. There are some exceptions to these age ranges, so please visit our Youth at the Seminar page if you're not sure which registration you should use.

Both forms allow you to register as an in-person attendee or as an online attendee:

Register as a Youth \(aged 14-18\) for the Seminar

Register as an Adult \(over 18\) for the Seminar

Registration includes workshops, conference materials, deep learning, reflection, and access to our Whova event app. Whova will also provide a streamlined & engaging platform for our online attendees. Congregational groups are encouraged to gather locally to participate together in the online seminar content.

In-person registration also includes five meals and access to our block of specialty-rate hotel rooms (which include complimentary breakfast, WiFi, and shuttle to/from the Seminar venue).

Visit our Seminar Lodging page to reserve your room now!

Note: Some seminar content may only be available either online or in-person, not both.
